

TENTATIVE RULINGS

FOR: August 31, 2015

Please note that the court will strictly enforce filing deadlines for papers filed in support of and in opposition to law and motion matters, and may exercise its discretion to disregard a late filed paper, pursuant to California Rules of Court, rule 3.1300(d).

When calculating filing deadlines for papers to be filed within a certain number of court days from a hearing date, parties should exclude court holidays and court closure days.

Unlawful Detainer Cases - No tentative ruling will be posted because access to records is not permitted until 60 days after the complaint is filed. Parties must appear for all unlawful detainer demurrers, motions to quash, and other matters.

Court Reporting Services - Official court reporters are not provided by the Court in proceedings for which such services are not legally mandated. These proceedings include civil law and motion matters. If counsel wish to have the hearing on their civil law and motion matter reported, they must arrange for a private court reporter of their choosing to be present. The Napa County Bar Association has further information about local private court reporters. Go to <http://napacountybar.org/court-reporting-services/> for further information.

Attorneys or parties should confer with each other to avoid having more than one court reporter present for the same matter.

*Special Note--because of early court closures on Fridays, the court is unable to field telephone calls for requests for oral argument. For this reason, no tentative rulings can be posted on Fridays and, therefore, appearances are required for the posted court hearings.
